

Reaching Out: Educational Trip

The Pre-Primary Outreach Programme Pre-primary outreach programs aim to connect young children with educational opportunities. These programs bring learning experiences to children. They often involve interactive activities, storytelling, and play-based learning. This helps create a supportive environment. The goal is to introduce children to the joys of learning and prepare them for their educational journey. It's all about making learning fun!

